

The Wet Fish Café

wines

New World and artisanal wines are what we love.

You can also buy bottles or order cases at take home prices.

Prosecco & Champagne	175ml Glass	Bottle
Prosecco Frizzante, Cà Morlin Dry, semi-sparkling, soft-scented and grapey – a revelation for Prosecco	£5.90	19.80
Crémant Rosé de Bourgogne NV From the same grapes yet lighter and less rich than Champagne - perfect summer drinking	£6.90	28.60
Champagne De Nauroy Brut NV Fresh and lemony with a nose of brioche, this is a forward style champagne with a delicate mousse		35
White Wines
Trebbiano-Garganega, Ponte Pietra, 2009, Italy Dry, fresh, light, easy and zesty	£3.80	13.80
Chenin Blanc-Semillon, Finca los Prados, 2009, Argentina Dry with apples & pears from the Chenin and fresh zingy-ness from the Semillon	£4.60	15.80
Grillo, Villa Tonino, 2008, Sicily Dry and crisp with delicate aromas and rich and full on the palate, citrus with hints of apple		18.60
Colombard, Domaine de Sainte-Lannes, 2009, France Fruity, aromatic and really well-balanced, from the region that makes Cognac		19.60
Pinot Grigio delle Venezie, Corte Giara, 2008, Italy Light, fresh, floral and well-balanced, more confident than most Pinot Grigios		22
Great Southern Riesling, Plantagenet, 2008, Southern Australia For Riesling lovers, this is a five-star producer to discover – dry, crisp and limey		25
Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, Delta Vineyard, 2008, New Zealand Powerful yet elegant, plenty of passion fruit and a finish that lasts for minutes		26
Marlborough Viognier, Yealands, 2008, New Zealand Easy and peachy, a great food wine and fresh for a Viognier - and from a fully sustainable winery		29.60
Organic Chardonnay-Marsanne-Viognier, Novas, 2007, Chile Blindingly good off-dry white, voluminous palate, minerally fruits, long finish - great white for meat dishes		36
Rosé Wines
Corvina, Alpha Zeta 'R' Rosato, 2009, Italy Light pink colour, ripe cherry and strawberry aromas, lively and fresh on the palate	£4.60	15.60
Fairview Rosé, Charles Back, 2009, South Africa An aromatic dry rosé, great as an aperitif or with light dishes such as poultry or salmon		19.60
Red Wines
Merlot-Corvina, Ponte Pietra, 2009, Italy Light, ripe and fresh with cherry aromas, an easy table wine	£3.80	13.80
Cabernet-Malbec, Finca los Prados, 2009, Argentina Medium-bodied with strong red fruits, spices and chocolate	£4.60	15.80
Goats do Roam, Fairview Estate, 2008, South Africa Mostly Shiraz and Pinotage, this is fruit-forward, fresh and lively - a excellent value wine		18
Carmenère Seleccion, Chocalan Estate, 2008, Chile A soft and supple wine - red fruit and chocolatey aromas, velvety tannins, lovely long finish		21
Sangiovese-Merlot, Da Vinci, Chianti, 2008, Italy Lively perfume of cherries and blackberries, plummy finish with spice and black pepper		23
Syrah-Grenache, Jaboulet P45, Côtes du Rhone, 2008, France Elegant and aromatic, red fruit and spices, rounded tannins - perfect throughout a meal		24
McLaren Vale Shiraz-Viognier, Willunga 100, 2006, South Australia The Viognier gives a perfumed floral lift amid the intense smokey brambley Shiraz		25
Rioja Reserva, Castillo de Clavijo, 2004, Spain Very well balanced Rioja with black and red berry fruit and spicy, creamy vanilla oak		28.60
Pinot Noir, Alois Lageder, 2006, Italy A captivating perfume and exceptional harmony from these biodynamically grown grapes		35